

Urinary Health

Incontinence Episode

Step 1: After each incontinent episode clean thoroughly with Theraworx Protect following facility protocol

Step 2: Final application apply Theraworx Protect from navel to above knee (see diagram).

Do Not Rinse.
Allow to air Dry.

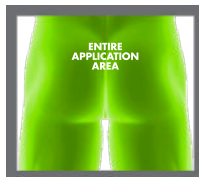

Skin & Barrier Health for Incontinence

Use Theraworx Protect after each incontinence episode, brief check, or as needed.

Apply Theraworx Protect as final application to all areas needing protection (see diagram).

Do Not Rinse.
Allow to Air Dry.

Skin & Barrier Health

Apply Theraworx Protect to at risk skin or affected areas as needed.

Do Not Rinse.
Allow to Air Dry.

Indwelling Invasive Devices

Step 1: Use Theraworx Protect to clean skin around device as needed.

Step 2: Apply to skin as needed for barrier protection.

Do not rinse.
Allow to air dry.

Urinary Analysis / Clean Catch

Use Theraworx Protect to clean area in and around where urine passes prior to collection.

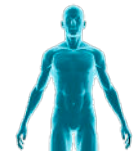

Follow facility protocol for urine collection.

Straight Catheter

Use Theraworx Protect to clean area in and around where urine passes prior to inserting catheter.

Follow facility protocol for urine collection.

After removal of catheter: use Theraworx Protect to clean in and around where urine passes.

Total Body Hygiene

Use Theraworx Protects' 8-Pack Cloth Bathing System. Follow instructions for use on package.

Recommended for:

- New Admits
- Isolation
- Chronic Odor
- Bed Bound
- Behavior Issues

Standardized Care with Theraworx® Protect

Theraworx Protect is an advanced hygiene and barrier system that harnesses the power of the skin's defense system to manage healthcare-associated risks.

